OUTCOME

Communication approach

Overarching communication focus

- Highlight EU support and contribution to protecting the environment in the region
- Enhance environmental data and information capacity in the region, building on EEA/Eionet experience
- Support and strengthen regional cooperation on the environment
- Facilitate environmental partnerships and deliverables, among others, as input to the pan-European process

Antonio Atanasio Rincón, Sustainably Yours /EEA

Extracting messages: EXAMPLES

- The European Union supports environmental assessments and reporting in Eastern Partnership countries.
- The EEA facilitates networking and capacity building.
- We have solid and reliable data on the environment (e.g. freshwater)
- Freshwater resources face pressures from use of chemicals in agriculture.

Closing conference communication objectives

- Promote EU/EEA added value through the project's results – concrete deliverables in terms of environmental knowledge and capacity building (e.g. indicators, assessments) and tools to make environmental information accessible and available in line with SEIS principles
- Give voice to countries' and personal testimonials (highlighting the added value to the Neighbourhood countries with examples of concrete achievements)
- Enable reflection on next steps of cooperation and networking in the region
- Facilitate joint reflection on prospective developments in environmental information (big data, artificial intelligence, citizen science, etc.)
