

Survey Results

Water Workshop 6-7 November 2017

Tbilisi, Georgia

EEA activity: ENI SEIS II East

Author: Victoria Goncharova

1.1 Introduction

The purpose of this report is to outline our key stakeholder's perception of the degree to which their needs and expectations with relations to water workshop have been fulfilled. It analyses data gathered from the survey form and round table feedback.

1.1.1 Target Stakeholders

Water workshop participants from the Georgian authorities.

1.1.2 Survey Results

- › Sample size – 14 participants
- › Rate of response - 10 replies, 71 % response rate
- › Results (Degree of satisfaction level for each attribute and gap between the relevance of the attribute and the related satisfaction level)

Please evaluate the following:	Outstanding	Average	Needs Improvement
1) Workshop 's goals objectives were clear	10
2) Workshop enabled interactions of all participants	10
3) Workshop was managed on time	9	1
4) Workshop's objectives were achieved	10
5) Workshop was useful for my work	7	3

Summary of comments:

'The workshop was very interesting and interactive. WE got many useful information. Looking forward for our future cooperation. Thank you'

'Great team, very well structured sessions, very dedicated experts with excellent communication and experience sharing skills.'

During the closing session participants mentioned that workshop was important, informative, well-structured, with a clear work plan, useful helpdesk support. Participants were looking forwards to training and results.