

Vafadar Ismayilov

Vafadar Ismayilov is a National SEIS Assistant for Azerbaijan.

He has over 16 years of experience in rising awareness, developing databases and delivering trainings in environmental field.

With his participation in the WSS project, Environmental Impact Assessment report was prepared for several areas of Azerbaijan. His contribution was to assess the environmental and social impacts of project and to identify the mitigation measures during construction and post development phases.

He participated in preparation of EIA reports for following ADB projects: Power Transmission Enhancement Project and Shimal - Absheron Power Transmission Line Construction Project as social impact assessment expert.

Vafadar worked in the area of installation, exploitation and delivering user training for automatic gauging stations.

He attended trainings and workshops on environmental management and planning delivered by USAID South Caucasus Water Program, UNDP GEF , EU Kura TACIS, EU Water Governance and EU EPIRB project, as well as participated in development of relevant RBMP for selected pilot river basins(Ganikh(Alazan), Ganjachay, Central Kura) within above mentioned projects.

In addition, he actively participated in field monitoring programs organised by different projects.